

CELEBRATE NATIONAL AG DAY

ANNOUNCER:

Did you know that American agriculture not only provides you with food and clothing, but also helps meet hunger demands around the world? On March the 20th - National Ag Day, help us honor the hard work of America's farmers as you enjoy the bounty they've made possible. This message was brought to you by USDA's Farm Service Agency and the Agriculture Council of America in joyful celebration of Ag Day 2009.
